|       | Biological Excursion Tour at Kuwara Bhivsen and Ghoghra Mahadev. | Kuwara Bhivsen is a Gond village on the bank of Pench river surrounded by forests. A Gond temple at the hilltop is one of the main attractions. The place is a beautiful picnic spot. The drive through the forest adds to the charm. Kunwara bhivsen is a small village in the Ramtek tahsil, 28.969 km. (18 miles) north of Nagpur on the bank of the river Pench. A hill by the village contains the remains of an old fort, its summit being encircled with walls made of ponderous masses of rock. Our One day biological excursion tour has been planned on 27 October 2023. Altogether there were 40 students and 05 teaching staff members and one botany attendant (Mr. Ritesh Dahare) were present. By Bus we have our journey from college, in meanwhile we provide breakfast to the students and teachers. Firstly we had been to KUWARA BHIVSEN which was 62 kms. From our college, it takes nearly one and half hours to reach there .all the students they enjoyed nature at location, as well as they had located many native birds, medicinal plants and indigenous plants, after that all the students they climbed up and there was very old Shiv mandir located at high altitude the path was very dangerous and it takes nearly one hour to reach at the top after one hour students came down and they were very tired, exhausted and very thirsty and hungry also. Then all the students they had their lunch near temple of kuwara bhivsen. After that we proceed towards next destination i.e. Ghoghra Mahadev which was nearly 21.3 kms away from the place near Pench river. It takes nearly 45mint.to reach at that place. The Natural beauty and marvellous landscapes never fail to amaze us. And just when we think that we have visited every single spot there is to see, we stumble upon a new and even more breath-taking location waiting to be explored. This place is so amazing that all the students they enjoyed a lot more in this place specially they enjoyed in the river water for about 2-3 hours, and then we move towards our last destination at Nagpur, while returning we had also visited Koradi temple and then return to our college as many students they had call their parents. We reach at 7.30 pm. At our college. |
